Watching Our Walk

Philippians 3:17-4:1*

The apostle now transitions from the athletic metaphor of running in a race (3:14) to a citizenship illustration. Paul appealed to his readers to follow his example. We have a choice. We can model our lives after those advocating falsehood and fail to win the prize or we can model our lives after Christ.

If you are a believer in the Lord Jesus Christ, you are a heaven-bound person living in a hell-bound world. How can we live eagerly in joy?

- RECOGNIZE examples to follow (3:17)

- REALIZE that many are walking wrongly (3:18-19)

- REMEMBER your citizenship (3:20-21)

- RESOLVE to stand firm in the Lord (4:1)
